A Misfit.

Florida Times-Union

A late writer declares Roosevelt is combination of Washington, Lincoln, Napoleon and St. George. Evi dently that article has been traveling around the magazine offices for some months and was carelessly printed before bringing it up to date. A man like Washington who makes statements to Congress "without a basis of truth?" A man like Lincoln who is without the strength to stand apart from mere thieves? Like Napoleon who only rode up San Juan after the enemy had disappeared? Like St. George, who qualls be fore every little worm of political pull and tries to placate every influence in the land?
